

“Meeting the Challenge - Driving Quality and Productivity through Mental Health Commissioning”

VENUE AND DATE

25th March, 2010, The Grosvenor, 101 Buckingham Palace Road, Victoria, London SW1W 0SJ,

TIME:

09.30 registration for 10.00 start - 15.45pm latest finish
(lunch included)

Who should attend?

- Chief Executives and Directors of Primary Care Trusts
- Mental Health Trusts
- Strategic Health Authorities and Directors of Social Services
- Chief Executives of Third Sector
- Chief Executives of Independent Sector organisations
- Representatives of user & carer organisations

This Interactive seminar will:

- Take stock of progress towards delivering World Class Commissioning in Mental Health
- Support the introduction and use of a range of products and tools to assist commissioners
- Build a consensus on how commissioners can best meet the twin challenges of the Quality and Productivity agenda and New Horizons
- Explore the challenges and opportunities of commissioning and providing high quality mental health services in the economic downturn

Time	Agenda	Speaker
09.30 - 10.00	Registration
10.00 - 10.15	Introduction	Dr Hugh Griffiths, Deputy National Clinical Director for Mental Health
10.15 - 10.45	The World Class Commissioning Guide Quality and Productivity as an impetus for innovation	Kieron Murphy Programme Director, National World Class Commissioning Mental Health Programme David Daniels, Head of Mental Health System Reform at the Department of Health John Boyington, Head of Mental Health Improvement Programme, North West
10.45 - 11.00	Q & A - To above
11.00- 11.15	Refreshments
11.15 - 12.00	Making a practical contribution toward World Class in Mental Health - stories from the North West Working together and the London mental health commissioning programme Devolved Joint Commissioning	Simon Rippon Deputy head of Mental Health Improvement Programme Sue Christie, Programme Manager- Mental Health Commissioning Commissioning Support for London Mark Jordon Programme Director Investing In Your Mental Health, Hertfordshire
12.00- 12.15	Q and A - To Above
12.15- 12.45	The implications of the economic downturn for commissioners and providers	Steve Shrubbs, Director of the Mental Health Network, NHS Confederation
12.45 - 13.15	Lunch
13.15 - 13.30	Welcome back	Dr Hugh Griffiths Deputy National Clinical Director for Mental Health
13.30 - 14.10	Commissioning for health and well -being. How this will be different and can this be achieved	ADASS Mental Health Network Representative -TBC Gregor Henderson, Programme Lead, Well-Being and Population Mental Health, NMH DU
14.10 - 14.50	Working towards world class commissioning of mental health services	Angela Gibson Commissioning Lead, World Class Commissioning
14.50 - 15.30	New Horizons-next steps	Bruce Calderwood, Director of Mental Health Policy at the Department of Health
15.30 - 15.45	Conclusions	Dr Hugh Griffiths Deputy National Clinical Director for Mental Health

Places can only be booked online by visiting our website www.nmhdu.org.uk/our-work/mental-health-commissioning-programme/

Please make sure that you complete all indicated fields. If successful (dependant on volume of applications), confirmation will be send to you via email, therefore please ensure that you provide your correct email address. Applications will close on Monday 15th March.

For further information please contact; Katy.Davies@nmhdu.org.uk Tel: 0207 972 4204